Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Tuesday 30 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Another fine, warm and sunny day on Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
After a fine end to the day, it will stay dry overnight with long clear spells and light winds. Turning chilly, especially in the countryside where some mist or fog patches may form in river valleys. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Wednesday:
Fine on Wednesday with sunny spells and light winds allowing it to become warm through the afternoon. Perhaps becoming cloudier in the north later with a little drizzle by evening. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Turning much colder from Thursday but remaining mostly dry throughout. Variable cloud likely with some sunny spells by day but cold overnight with a risk of frost.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.